U.S. DEPARTMENT OF THE TREASURY

Capital Projects Fund Award Fact Sheet
Alaska

Treasury approves Alaska's plan to invest $4.5 million of CPF funding in a multi-purpose community facility to improve resources for communities that enable work, education, and health monitoring.

Alaska Capital Projects Fund Program Overview

- Program Summary: $4.5 million for Multi-Purpose Community Facilities (4% of CPF allocation)
- Program Description: The construction of the Nuniaq Community Center will provide the community with computers and internet access, a youth center, and tribal preschool and offices. This project has been a longstanding priority of the community, and will replace the former center, which no longer meets the community's needs
- Key State Contact: Alutiiq Tribe of Old Harbor

This facility will benefit the residents of Old Harbor, a population of approximately 300 people.
