2. General Market Commentary (optional)

The total loan and lease portfolio grew on average $5.6 million from February to March of 2009. Growth was primarily in commercial mortgages, commercial leases and commercial lines of credit. Beginning in March, the Bank launched the "FNBL Stimulus Package". This goal of this program was to invest over $10 million back into our communities by providing special loans for buying a new home, new car, running a business or other consumer needs. Additionally, during the first quarter of 2009 the Bank originated and funded18 residential mortgages totaling $4.6 million which it sold to Fannie Mae.
