Department of the Treasury Bureau Information

The mission of the Internal Revenue Service is to provide America's Taxpayers top quality service by helping them understand and meet their tax responsibilities and by applying the tax law with integrity and fairness to all. The IRS Procurement Office acquires the products and services required to support the IRS mission. We advertise commercial opportunities on Federal Business Opportunities (FedBizOpps) web site, as well as our IRS webpage of opportunities at http://www.irs.gov/uac/Procurement-Business-Opportunities.

We buy: The IRS purchases a variety of products and services including computer related services and software, management consulting services and administrative management and consulting services. Top NAICS codes include but are not limited to: 541519; 541512; 541618; 541611; & 561612.

Note: Upcoming work is best identified by reviewing our Forecast located on the Department of the Treasury's OSDBU website (http://www.treasury.gov/resource-center/sb-programs/Small-Disadvantaged-Business/Pages/Small-and-Disadvantaged-Business-Utilization1.aspx). Contact the point of contact listed on the Forecast. If additional assistance is needed, contact the IRS Small Business office at AWSS.SBRO@IRS.GOV. Thank you.

The OCC charters, regulates and supervises national banks and federal branches and agencies of foreign banks. The OCC's mission is to ensure that national banks and federal savings associations operate in a safe and sound manner, provide fair access to financial services, treat customers fairly, and comply with the applicable laws and regulations.

We buy: 541519, 541513, 531210, 524210, 541990, 518210, 541512, 541611

Note: OCC follows the FAR and look at various schedules while conducting market research. Most efforts are procured through various Multiple Award Schedules (MAS), GSA, OSASIS, Schedule 70, MOBIS, FABS, NIH-CIO SP3, Alliant SB, NASA SEWP. If you are not on these schedules there may not be an opportunity to connect with the OCC. We suggest you find partners or subcontracting opportunities with businesses that are on these vehicles. We do post request for information and sources sought on FedBizOps. However, because we use MAS's we rarely post request for proposals on FedBizOps.

The Chief Executive Officer of the United States Mint is the Director, who reports to the Secretary of the Treasury. The Director is appointed for a term of five years by the President with the advice and consent of the United States Senate.

We consist of corporate offices, and strategic business units headquartered in Washington, DC and five field locations. All coins for general circulation are produced at Philadelphia and Denver Mints. Then Mints in San Francisco, West Point, Philadelphia, and Denver produce and package the Mint's numismatic products.
