

Capital Projects Fund Award Fact Sheet

Alaska

Treasury approves Alaska's plan to invest $24 million of CPF funding in a multi-purpose community facility to improve resources for communities that enable work, education, and health monitoring.

Alaska Capital Projects Fund Program Overview

- Program Summary: $24 million for Multi-Purpose Community Facilities (21% of CPF allocation)
- Program Description: The construction of the Nenana Health and Wellness Complex, which includes an outpatient community behavioral health center, a training center for home health aides, meeting spaces, an urgent care center, health clinics, and a daycare center. In addition to offering health monitoring services, the health clinics would train new healthcare personnel and offer internships. The outpatient community behavior health center will provide parenting classes and classes for youth on the risks of substance abuse.
- Key State Contact: The Nenana Native Association

Alaska estimates that the Nenana Health and Wellness Complex will benefit residents in the interior of Alaska, approximately 3,000 individuals, as well as seasonal workers and tourists.
