Section 7.02 Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed by facsimile or other electronic means and in counterparts, all of which shall be considered an original and one and the same agreement and shall become effective when counterparts have been signed by each of the parties and delivered to the other parties, it being understood that all parties need not sign the same counterpart.

ANNEX 1

CALCULATION OF PRESENT VALUE PURCHASE PRICE

The Present Value Purchase Price shall be calculated as the sum of: (1) the Present Value Amount (as defined below) plus (2) accrued and unpaid dividends to (but excluding) the Closing Date. The Present Value Purchase Price shall be calculated by Treasury.

The “Present Value Amount” means the amount calculated using the following formula, with parameters as defined as follows:

$$\textit{Present Value Amount} = (\textit{Dividend Rate} \div \textit{Cost of Equity}) * \textit{Aggregate Liquidation Value}$$

“Dividend Rate” means the dividend rate on the ECIP Securities at the Reset Date immediately preceding the Closing Date.

“Aggregate Liquidation Value” is equal to the aggregate liquidation preference of the ECIP Securities.

“Cost of Equity” is calculated using the following formula, with parameters as defined as follows:

$$\textit{Cost of Equity} = \textit{RFR} + \beta(\textit{Equity Risk Premium})$$

“RFR” means the higher of: (i) the prevailing Kroll-recommended U.S. normalized risk-free rate, available at <https://www.kroll.com/en/insights/publications/cost-of-capital/recommended-us-equity-risk-premium-and-corresponding-risk-free-rates>, or if such rate is not available, an alternative rate selected by Treasury in its sole discretion; or (ii) the spot yield on 20-year U.S. Treasury bonds, based on the Daily Treasury Par Yield Curve Rates available on Treasury’s website, or if such source of this data point is not available, an alternative source of this data point selected by Treasury in its sole discretion, as of three Business Days before the Closing Date.

“β” equals 0.5.

“Equity Risk Premium” means the Kroll-recommended U.S. Equity Risk Premium as of three Business Days before the Closing Date, available at <https://www.kroll.com/en/insights/publications/cost-of-capital/recommended-us-equity-risk-premium-and-corresponding-risk-free-rates>, or if such data point is not available, an alternative data point selected by Treasury in its sole discretion.

(C) Non-Contravention. Subject to the receipt of all necessary regulatory approvals, neither the execution and delivery of this Joinder Agreement and the Agreement nor the consummation by the Purchaser of the transactions contemplated thereby and hereby, will violate applicable Law.

(D) Consents and Approvals. No consents or approvals of, or filings or registrations with, any Governmental Entity or any other third party by and on behalf of the Purchaser are necessary in connection with the execution and delivery by the Purchaser of this Joinder Agreement and the Agreement and the consummation by the Purchaser of the transactions contemplated thereby and hereby.

(E) Mission Aligned Nonprofit Affiliate Criteria. The Purchaser meets all criteria to be a Mission Aligned Nonprofit Affiliate and understands that a final determination of such status will be made by Treasury as contemplated by the Policy.

(F) Securities and Certain Compliance Matters.

(1) The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that the Purchaser (i) is a sophisticated investor; (ii) does not require the assistance of an investment advisor or other purchaser representative to purchase the ECIP Securities; (iii) has such knowledge and experience in financial and business matters as to be capable of evaluating the merits and risks of its prospective investment in the ECIP Securities; (iv) has the ability to bear the economic risks of its prospective investment for an indefinite period of time; (v) can afford the complete loss of such investment; and (vi) recognizes that the investment in the ECIP Securities involves substantial risk.

(2) The Purchaser understands that Treasury may have access to information about the Recipient that is not generally available to the public, and acknowledges and agrees that, to the extent Treasury has any such information, such information need not (and shall not) be provided to the Purchaser by Treasury. The Purchaser further understands that Treasury is a federal agency and that the Purchaser's ability to bring a claim against Treasury under the federal securities laws may be limited.

(3) The Purchaser acknowledges that the Purchaser is not relying on any advice or recommendation from Treasury, or any investigation or examination that Treasury may have conducted, with respect to the ECIP Securities or the Recipient, and Treasury has not made any representation, warranty or covenant, express or implied, to the Purchaser with respect thereto and Treasury shall not have any liability to the Purchaser with respect thereto.

(4) The Purchaser is not a Prohibited Investor, and the funds intended to be used to purchase the ECIP Securities were legally derived from legitimate sources and were not obtained, directly or indirectly, not from any Prohibited Investor.

(5) The Purchaser currently meets, will continue to meet, and has met in all material respects (or has taken all action necessary to cure any instance of non-compliance with) all of its applicable obligations under the Anti-Money Laundering Laws. The Purchaser maintains policies and procedures reasonably designed to comply with applicable obligations under the Anti-Money Laundering Laws. The Purchaser also represents that it maintains policies and procedures reasonably designed to ensure compliance with applicable sanctions administered by the United States, the European Union, or any individual European Union member state, or the United Kingdom.

(G) Availability of Funds. The Purchaser has and will have as of the Closing sufficient funds available to consummate the transactions contemplated hereunder.

(I) ECIP Materials. All materials submitted to Treasury by the Purchaser in connection with the matters contemplated by the Agreement, including with respect to the Purchaser's status as a Mission Aligned Nonprofit Affiliate, are true, correct and complete in all material respects.
