Homeowner Needs and Community Engagement

What Quantitative Data Has Informed the Participant's Planning?

Treasury will assess the extent to which a Participant has, in the course of its HAF planning process, relied on quantitative data, including from community-based organizations or organizations that serve potentially eligible homeowners.

In its HAF planning process, has the Participant obtained quantitative data from mortgage servicers, private data providers, government entities, community-based organizations, or other sources to inform its planning about how to target and best serve eligible homeowners with mortgage delinquencies, defaults, foreclosures?

Yes

If yes, please list and, briefly describe each source of quantitative data.

In addition to the information provided by Treasury (Federal Reserve Dashboard) we reviewed data produced by the Mortgage Bankers Association, ' National Delinquency Survey', Utah Department of Workforce Services - Annual Housing Report (<https://jobs.utah.gov/housing/reports/documents/affordablehousingreport.pdf>), Kem C. Gardner Policy Institute, September 2020 Economic Summary (<https://gardner.utah.edu/wp-content/uploads/September-2020-Economic-Summary.pdf>), May 2021 - Data Book Diversity in Utah: Race Ethnicity and Sex (<https://gardner.utah.edu/wp-content/uploads/DiversityDataBook-May2021.pdf>), March 2018 - Housing Prices and the Threat to Affordability (<https://gardner.utah.edu/wp-content/uploads/HousingBrief.pdf>), and Census Data.

In its HAF planning process, has the Participant obtained and reviewed quantitative data or studies regarding which demographic segments in its jurisdiction have historically experienced discrimination in the housing or housing finance market?

Yes

If yes, please list and, briefly describe each source of quantitative data.

The sources listed in the previous question, and others too numerous to list, also educated our research on this target population. The State of Utah's Division of Multicultural Affairs, the Utah Housing Coalition, the Community Development Corporation of Utah, the Utah Housing Corporation, and the Associations of Governments will be working with us to define the most effective means by which to reach the target populations as they are the experts in their communities. Additionally we will be expressly targeting our outreach efforts in Qualified Census Tracts.

In its HAF planning process, has the Participant obtained quantitative data from utility providers or entities charged with assessing and collecting property taxes or relied on quantitative data or studies to inform its planning about how to target and best serve eligible homeowners at risk of displacement due to utility arrearage or tax foreclosure?

Yes

If yes, please list and, briefly describe each source of quantitative data.

In the State of Utah lenders must file a 'Notice of Default' with the County Recorder starting a 120 day cure period. Our office will obtain monthly reports from each County to proactively reach out to those subject parties. Additionally we will monitor the County's tax sales postings for single family residences owing back taxes. Finally Rocky Mountain Power (PacificCorp), the largest power supply company for the state of Utah, provided a breakdown of the debt in Utah with the number of days in arrears which we will continue to collect. All of these records will assist us in targeting our outreach efforts.

In the following text box, please list any source not listed above of quantitative information, including sources of data on the performance of any of the Participant's previously implemented programs, that the Participant used to inform its HAF planning process, briefly describe how the data informed the Participant's planning.

Our strategy has been informed by many of the datasets and resources that we have used for the Emergency Rental Assistance program. For the HAF program we have now engaged the local mortgage association to guide us in our implementation.

Did the Participant communicate with mortgage servicers regarding the development of its program design?

Yes

Did the Participant communicate with other HAF participants regarding the development of its program design?

Yes

How Has Community Engagement and Public Participation Informed the Participant's Planning?

Treasury will assess the extent to which a Participant's assessment of homeowner needs has been informed by and reflects input from organizations and individuals representing eligible homeowners, including any opportunities for public participation in the development of the Participant's plan. Treasury will pay particular attention to the extent of the Participant's engagement with populations that are the subject of statutory targeting requirements.

Has the Participant requested and received input on its HAF planning process from providers of housing counseling services or providers of legal assistance to homeowners facing foreclosure or displacement?

How Will the Participant Continue to Assess the Needs of Eligible Homeowners?

Treasury anticipates that an ongoing process of assessing the needs of eligible homeowners will help address the needs of potentially eligible homeowners as economic conditions change over time.

Does the Participant plan to update its assessment of community needs within the next year to determine whether its HAF program design should be updated to address changing needs of potentially eligible homeowners?

Yes

What additional data would be helpful to the Participant as it seeks to assess homeowner needs over time?

Continue to analyze future foreclosure rates and follow monthly data on delinquencies.
Regular evaluation of data from the program to determine future needs and changes.

Program Design

What are the Program Design Elements Through Which the Participant Will Deliver HAF Assistance to Eligible Homeowners?

A program design element is a specific activity or program, which is consistent with a qualified expense category, under which a Participant will disburse HAF funds in accordance with the HAF Plan. Please note that multiple program design elements may fit under a single qualified expense category; for example, a mortgage assistance program that has different terms for federally backed mortgages and manufactured-home mortgages may constitute two separate program design elements, for which case the Participant provides a separate term sheet or other description for each program design element.

HAF participants must have at least one program design element intended to reduce mortgage delinquency among targeted populations. Treasury encourages HAF participants to consider program design elements that address homeownership preservation for targeted populations in areas where there is a sustained trend of increasing property taxes or utility costs, including for households that do not have mortgages.

Please identify each qualified expense category in which the Participant will offer a program design element by checking the boxes below.

- mortgage payment assistance
- mortgage principal reduction, including with respect to a second mortgage provided by a nonprofit or government entity
- payment assistance for homeowner's utilities, including electric, gas, home energy, and water
- payment assistance for homeowner's insurance, flood insurance, and mortgage insurance
- payment assistance for delinquent property taxes to prevent homeowner tax foreclosures
- payment assistance for down payment assistance loans provided by nonprofit or government entities
- financial assistance to allow a homeowner to reinstate a mortgage or to pay other housing-related costs related to a period of forbearance, delinquency, or default
- facilitating mortgage interest rate reductions
- payment assistance for homeowner's internet service, including broadband internet access service, as defined in 47 CFR 8.1(b)
- payment assistance for homeowner's association fees or liens, condominium association fees, or common charges
- measures to prevent homeowner displacement, such as home repairs to maintain the habitability of a home or assistance to enable households to receive clear title to their properties

For each program design element that the Participant will offer, the Participant is required to upload a term sheet or other description, that, at a minimum, provides the following information regarding that program design element. Term sheets for all of Participant’s HAF programs may be uploaded together as one document.

Title	Upload Date
Utah HAF Feedback 12 23 2021	12/23/2021 3:03 PM

HAF Feedback 2 1 2022 (1)	2/4/2022 2:48 PM

A HAF participant may elect to revise its HAF Plan over time to add or subtract program design elements. Does the Participant anticipate adding additional program design elements to this HAF Plan within one year of this submission?

Yes

Treasury has provided sample term sheets to assist HAF participants in developing their HAF plans. Participants may use these sample term sheets, in whole or in part, as part of their submission. To the extent the Participant intends to structure the program differently with respect to significant program terms described in the Sample Term Sheets, Treasury will, in the course of its review of the HAF Plan, request a justification for how the alternate approach will further the objectives of the HAF, including targeting and prioritization requirements. In the chart below, the HAF Participant may provide a justification for significant deviations from the terms described in the sample term sheets upon initial submittal. (optional for initial submission)

Program Design Element	Deviation from sample terms	Justification
Utah HAF Term Sheet	We followed the sample term sheet and uploaded above as instructed.	See uploaded term sheet.

Documentation of Homeowner Income

Homeowners are eligible to receive amounts allocated to a HAF participant under the HAF only if they have incomes equal to or less than 150% of the area median income or 100% of the median income for the United States, whichever is greater. In addition, not less than 60% of amounts made available to each HAF participant must be used for qualified expenses that assist homeowners having incomes equal to or less than 100% of the area median income or equal to or less than 100% of the median income for the United States, whichever is greater. The HAF guidance describes permissible ways for HAF participants to determine homeowner income.

Under the HAF guidance, one permissible approach for determining income is for (1) the household to provide a written attestation as to household income and (2) the HAF participant to use a reasonable fact-specific proxy for household income, such as reliance on data regarding average incomes in the household’s geographic area. Will the Participant allow income to be determined in this way?

No

Under the HAF guidance, HAF participants may provide waivers or exceptions to this documentation requirement as reasonably necessary to accommodate extenuating circumstances, such as disabilities, practical challenges related to the pandemic, or a lack of technological access by homeowners; in these cases, the HAF participant is still responsible for making the required determination regarding household income and documenting that determination. Will the Participant allow applicants to request such waivers or exceptions?

Yes

Eligible Mortgage Types

Please indicate which of the following mortgage types are eligible to be assisted under one or more of the Participant's program design elements.

- First Mortgages
- Reverse Mortgages (Home Equity Conversion Mortgages, Single-Purposes Reverse Mortgages, or Proprietary Reverse Mortgages)
- Contracts for Deed or Land Contract (if it is a credit transaction secured by a consensual security interest in a dwelling)
- Second Mortgages
- Loans Secured by Manufactured Housing (secured by real estate or dwelling)

If the Participant excludes any of the forgoing mortgage types from one or more program design elements, explain the exclusion.

Primary focus is on first and second mortgages and to see what type of response we get with the available funds. We will evaluate the need for the other mortgage types if budget allows and there is a demand.

How Will the Participant Target HAF Resources Consistent with Statutory Requirements?

The Participant must describe how it will target HAF resources in accordance with the HAF guidance. Targeting strategies are affirmative efforts to inform, encourage the participation of, and facilitate access to resources for targeted households, including by offering multiple intake formats, engaging with nonprofit organizations (e.g., housing counselors or legal services organizations) to provide additional pathways into the program, and providing community outreach, partnerships with housing counseling agencies or legal aid organizations, or other educational services that are aligned with the HAF participant's program design, in a manner that is culturally and linguistically relevant to the targeted communities.

Defining Socially Disadvantaged Individual

Please describe the process the Participant will use to determine whether a homeowner is a "socially disadvantaged individual" as defined in the HAF guidance.

Socially Disadvantaged Individuals are those whose ability to purchase or own a home has been impaired due to diminished access to credit on reasonable terms as compared to others in comparable economic circumstances, based on disparities in homeownership rates. The impairment must stem from circumstances beyond their control. Indicators of impairment under this definition may include being a:

Member of a group that has been subjected to racial or ethnic prejudice or cultural bias within American society,
Resident of a majority-minority Census tract;
Individual with limited English proficiency;
Resident of a U.S. territory, Indian reservation, or Hawaiian Home Land, or Individual who lives in a persistent-poverty county, meaning any county that has had 20% or more of its population living in poverty over the past 30 years as measured by the three most recent decennial censuses.
