Creating credentials using Login.gov

To assist Treasury's American Rescue Plan (ARP) program, Treasury is now offering Login.gov access to Treasury’s American Rescue Plan (ARP) Reporting and Compliance Portal.

Once you have created a Login.gov account, you will be able to access Treasury’s ARP Reporting and Compliance portal.

To get started

1. Identify the Account Administrator for the specific Treasury program you support.

2. Verify that your account administrator pre-registered you in the portal. If you have received an email from the Treasury regarding Login.gov account setup, you are pre-registered and may proceed to create an account.

3. Navigate to https://portal.treasury.gov/compliance, click create an account and follow the instructions noted below.

Users may sign in using a pre-existing account or choose the create a new account option. Creating a new account is a one-time process that includes: 1) verifying your email address, 2) creating a password, and 3) receiving an authentication code. The entire process should take just a few minutes.

Using an existing Login.gov account

1. Enter your Login.gov e-mail address into the E-mail Address field.
2. Enter the password associated with your Login.gov account.
Creating a new Login.gov account

Step 1: Click ‘Create an account’ (Figure 1). You will be redirected to create an account.

Passwords must be at least 12 characters. There are no other restrictions. You can even use more than one word with spaces to get to 12 characters. Try using a phrase or a series of words that only you recognize.

Your Login.gov password should be different from passwords you use for other accounts such as your bank account or email. Using the same password for many accounts makes identity theft easier.

Step 7: Once the password is provided, set up their multi-factor authentication via one of the options provided (Figure 6).

Step 8: If the phone authentication method is selected, input a telephone number and select whether to receive the message via SMS or phone call.
Step 9: Once a phone number is added, enter your one-time security to finish account creation (refer to Figure 8).

Step 10: If another authentication method other than phone is selected, users should consult the Authentication Options page located at the following URL:

https://www.login.gov/help/get-started/authentication-options/

Follow the onscreen instructions provided for your selected method.
Step 11: After successfully adding a phone number to your account, you will receive screen informing you are officially signing in for the first time.
