

Capital Projects Fund Award Fact Sheet

New Jersey

Treasury approves New Jersey's plan to invest $56.8 million of CPF funding in a multi-purpose community facility to improve resources for communities that enable work, education, and health monitoring.

New Jersey Capital Projects Fund Program Overview

- Program Summary: $56.8 million for Multi-Purpose Community Facilities (29% of CPF allocation)
- Program Description: New Jersey will use this CPF award to fund the construction of a community school in Union City. In addition to educating students in grades 7-9, the community school will offer programming that enhances adult learning and development after the school day and during weekends. Examples of programs include computer and technology literacy workshops, English language (ESL) classes, and health screenings.
- Key State Contact: New Jersey Schools Development Authority (SDA)

New Jersey estimates this project will benefit approximately 10,000 community members annually

On November 26, 2024, Treasury approved New Jersey's request to modify the funding from $56M to $56.8M. This fact sheet reflects these changes.
