Describe how the transaction value and the applicable fee were calculated.

Has the transaction already closed?

Provide the status of the transaction, including the actual or expected completion date.

Opinions and Stipulations

Provide the foreign person's opinion as to whether the transaction could result in a foreign person being afforded property rights with respect to covered real estate and the reasons for its view, focusing in particular on any powers (for example, by virtue of an agreement, statute, or regulation) that the foreign person will have with regard to the covered real estate, and how those powers can or will be exercised.
While stipulations are not required from parties submitting a voluntary notice, they may help expedite the Committee's review, and may increase the likelihood of the Committee concluding all action under section 721 with respect to the covered transaction on the basis of the voluntary notice. A party that offers a stipulation acknowledges that the Committee and the President are entitled to rely on such stipulation in determining whether the transaction is a covered real estate transaction for the purposes of section 721 and all authorities thereunder, and waives the right to challenge any such determination. Neither the Committee nor the President is bound by any such stipulation, nor does any such stipulation limit the ability of the Committee or the President to act on any authority provided under section 721 with respect to any covered real estate transaction.

Does any party filing the real estate notice stipulate that the transaction is a covered real estate transaction? [optional]

Please provide a detailed description for the basis for this stipulation, for example, with respect to: (i) the party or parties to the transaction that are a foreign person under § 802.221; (ii) the property rights under § 802.233 afforded to the foreign person; (iii) how the real estate that is the subject of the transaction is covered real estate; and (iv) the parties' determination that the notified transaction is a covered real estate transaction under § 802.212(a), (b), or (e). Please indicate which party or parties offers this stipulation. [optional]

Parties are invited to respond to the following additional question:

Consider classifying your covered transaction as one of the following. [optional]
Persons Associated with the Transaction
