

Executive Summary

The Good Accounting Obligation in Government Act (the Act) requires each Federal agency to include, in its annual budget justification, a report that identifies each public recommendation issued by the Government Accountability Office (GAO) and the agency's inspector(s) general (IGs) that has remained unimplemented for one year or more from the budget justification submission date. In compliance with the Act, Treasury has included a report listing each public recommendation issued by GAO, Treasury Office of Inspector General (OIG), and Treasury Inspector General for Tax Administration (TIGTA). For recommendations with which Treasury agreed, this report provides timelines for full implementation of the planned corrective actions (PCAs). For recommendations with completed PCAs, this report indicates the status as "Implemented and Awaiting Auditor Verification." For recommendations with which Treasury disagreed or did not implement corrective actions due to budgetary constraints or other factors, this report indicates their status as either "Rejected" or "On Hold," respectively. For recommendations where Treasury did not formally respond or take action, this report indicates "No Action Taken."

The Act also requires a reconciliation between the agency records of unimplemented recommendations and each IGs' Semiannual Report to Congress (SAR). Treasury IGs use the same system (Treasury's Joint Audit Management Enterprise System (JAMES)) for the reporting of unimplemented recommendations in the SAR. In addition, Treasury IGs have direct access to JAMES and regularly review and validate the recommendation implementation status recorded in JAMES by conducting corrective action verifications and follow-up audits. A reconciliation table is provided as part of this report to illustrate that the discrepancies between this report and the SAR are due to differences in reporting criteria.

The information used to create this report is based on JAMES and GAO's recommendations database available on www.gao.gov.
